No. 15
Date 14-1-16

The French Police were notified by the Bureau of Foreign Affairs both on the afternoon of the 12th and the afternoon of the 15th that the rebels were going to attack the Chinese Police Stations in the evening. Nothing happened. More than the usual precautions were taken in the Chinese City. The French Police have arrested a Government detective who had an office and who is charged with functioning in the French Concession.

The following is an extract from the Deutsche Zeitung fur China dated 13th January 1916:-
" Shanghai Elections.

Shanghai Elections.

We have nominated for the coming election Mr. Stepharius as he is the eldest member of the German Community. We could not nominate Mr. H. Figue for certain reasons.

We, Germans, in Shanghai have little chance of getting a representative elected but we have shown that our interests in China are not finished yet. "

Yours Obedient Servant,

humanizing

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.
